

Charter of Exploration

By order of Blaze Liara Portyr, on behalf of Grand Duke Ulter Ravengard of Baldur's Gate and Marshal of the Flaming Fist, the bearer (S) of this document is authorized to explore Chult under the following conditions. This charter may be revoked at any time should the bearer (S) fail to abide by any of the rules or conditions set forth in this document.

- ∴ The bearer (S) must be in good standing with the Flaming Fist and the Blaze of Fort Beluarian.
- ∴ The bearer (S) agrees that in return for permission to explore the wilds of Chult, fully one half (50%) of each expedition's proceeds will be turned over to the Flaming Fist.
- ∴ The bearer (S) agrees that at least one half (50%) of all discoveries will be shared with the Flaming Fist. This knowledge will be used to tame the environment and maintain the order and security of all Flaming Fist strongholds within Chult.
- ∴ The bearer (S) of this charter may, at the discretion of the Flaming Fist Blaze, hire no more than six (6) Flaming Fist guards to accompany them on each expedition. Each guard hired in such a fashion will receive one (1) gold piece per ten-day in compensation for their services, payable by the bearer (S) at the end of each ten-day period.

Should the bearer (S) of this charter fail to abide by the conditions set forth within, they are subject to fines and penalties up to and including banishment from Chult or immediate death. Punishment will be meted out at the time of the crime's discovery by duly appointed agents of the Flaming Fist.
