I hope this missive finds you well in your travels.

I wanted to thank you again for helping our small, beleaguered force thin the ranks of the undead. Your triumph was a significant morale boost to the company present in the Fort, and I greatly appreciate the return of one of our missing patrols. That is one less potential undead for my men to face.

We are under tremendous pressure to expand our operations here in Chult, but as you have already seen, both our contingent and our funding are stretched to the breaking point. To this end, I would like to propose a mutually beneficial relationship that will also serve as a solution to this problem.

If you are ever in the area of the Fort, I would be more than happy to compensate you in the amount of 20 gp per ghoulish head and an additional 5 gp per zombie or skeleton head.

Simply present the heads at the Fort and I will ensure you are paid appropriately.

In addition, should you come to possess solid information on Shilku or the lost City of Night, I will pay handsomely for it.

I hope that you will consider my offers and I look forward to working with you in the future.

Blaze Liara Portyr
